Hi Jake -- copied on this are my counterpoint Craig Manderson and our head of the onboarding group, Rich Lewis.

First off thank you for thinking of us. Per our conversation, your deal at Guardian would be $0.002 per share and 40% off locates in the system. Routing would be pass through.

Please visit our website at www.guardiantrading.com for an application. Rich will provide you with a docusign link for you and your partner to sign regarding the Authorized trader form.

Should you choose to utilize Brian Rivera CPA for an LLC creation, we will rebate you the cost of creation in good faith, just please make sure you authorize him to provide the completed documents to us so Rich can process. It is seamless on all ends: his, yours and ours. His info: info@tradertaxcpa.com

I hope I answered all your questions today. Should you have any additional questions, please reach out. My contact information is below.
